- 1457 J. R. R. Tolkien (1892-1973) handwritten postcard to his official photographer Pamela Chandler dated 2. Augt. 1961: Dear Miss Chandler. It's very kind of you to come to my house. I shall be free on the morning of Thur. Aug. 17 (unless something unexpected and unhooked intervenes!) at any rate up to 12.45. You probably know Oxford; but if not you may be glad to hear that my house is two miles out on the London side. Sandfield Rd. is a turning on the right (as you begin to proceed down H'ton Hill) off the London Road: the third right-hand turning after the traffic lights not including the crossing where the lights stand. S. Rd. is long & my house is on the right 600 yards from the London Road. Yours Sincerely J. R. R. Tolkien £1,500-2,500
- 1458 J. R. R. Tolkien (1892-1973) handwritten letter to his official photographer Pamela Chandler, double sided, signed and dated 1961: 'Dear Miss Chandler, I received the proofs yesterday. A number of people have already seen them, & they have been (as a whole) generally approved. I do not think that the subject (or object?) himself is capable of capable of a sound opinion, for though the matter may touch him closely, he has less of a true idea what he looks like than what hi voice sounds like. I wouldn't pick 10/15/24 if I was the chooser (especially not 10) but I have no objection to Allen and Unwin's choice for their own purposes! I agree myself with your choice (16). Would you be prepared to do some finished copies of other various (than 10,15,24) for me? And if so, may I retain for present the proofs, to discover the tastes of those who wish for photographs of me? I hope you are really better now, and catching up arrows - if one ever really does. I seem to live in an endless pursuit. My wife and I were delighted to have your letter and good wishes which we return warmly, to you and Mrs Welby-Fisher Yours sincerely J.R.R. - 1459 J. R. R. Tolkien (1892-1973) hand signed typed letter to his official photographer Pamela Chandler, dated 11th October, 1961: Dear Miss Chandler, I am glad that you are better. Thank you very much for allowing me to keep the proofs for a little while longer. I expect I shall be sending you some orders on my own account shortly. I am also looking forward, when you are less busy, to seeing the pictures you took of myself and my wife. I think it is quite possible that overseas publishers would be interested in a picture, but I have no direct dealings with them, all such matters are in the hands of Allen & Unwin. Of course if I get any enquiries I shall direct anybody to you. With very best wishes, your sincerely, J. R. R. Tolkien. £1,500-2,500
- 1460 J. R. R. Tolkien (1892-1973) hand signed typed letter to his official photographer Pamela Chandler, dated 10th May 1966: Dear Miss Chandler, We're pleased to hear from you again. We hope we did not miss you, but although we were obliged to be out part of Sunday and Monday, we imagined that the weather was too bad for your project or taking pictures of farms in the Cotswolds. So we hope we did not actually miss you on this occasion. We are going away on May 14th until immediately after Whitsuntide. If your work brings you this way later, we shall be pleased to see you. We should be especially glad to see the photographs you took of us in the garden. It was our recollection that you said you would send us copies, but we have never received any, with good wishes, Yours sincerely, J. R. R. Tolkien £1,500-2,500

- 1461 Edith Tolkien (1889-1971) a hand written double-sided letter by the wife of J. R. R. Tolkien to his official photographer Pamela Chandler, dated Aug 10th (probably 1966): Dear Miss Chandler, How very kind of you to write so soon - & we are delighted to have the picture of "Didou" & her son, & also of you. How magnificent she is! - I hope we shall see her again. It was a great pleasure to us to have you here and seemed impossible that it was five years since we'd met. How nice that you had Aylesbury duck at Aylesbury! We must go to "The Bull" one day for lunch. Very many thanks for all the photos. Our daughter Priscilla, ran in for a cup of tea on Monday, on her way back from High Wycombe, and she thought the photos were very good. She wants to meet you one day. I hope you'll have decent weather while in Carmarthen: it's been awful - poured in torrents yesterday. My husband had a man from "The Times" due yesterday - for 1 1/2 hours - but he promised to send him a copy of his "story"! With affectionate good wishes from us both Edith W Tolkien £100-150
- 1462 Edith Tolkein (1889-1971) a hand written postcard by the wife of J. R. R. Tolkien to his official photographer Pamela Chandler, dated August 28th (1966): We are anxious to see the photographs before we go away at the end of the week. Joy Hill phoned to say she'd seen them that morning, & many were extremely good. Rayner Unwin said the same, when he was here a few days ago. So do send them. if you possibly can - All good wishes from us both, Edith W. Tolkien. N.B: Rayner Unwin was the first reader of the manuscript of the Hobbit, aged 10, see lot 1275 in this sale. £50-70
- 1463 J. R. R. Tolkien (1892-1973) a hand signed typed letter by J. R. R. Tolkien to his official photographer Pamela Chandler, dated 30th November 1966: We hope that all goes well with you. I wonder what is the situation with regards to the large photographs of myself and my wife which we ordered? We are getting a little anxious as they were intended to be Christmas presents, and one or two of them have to be sent away. With best wishes, Yours sincerely J. R. R. Tolkien £1,500-2,500
- 1464 Edith Tolkien (1889-1971) a hand written letter by the wife of J. R. R. Tolkien to his official photographer Pamela Chandler, dated Dec. 27th / 66: My dear Pamela, How kind of you to send a Xmas card of the Beaufort Hounds. What fine creatures they are. I hope you had a happy Xmas - wherever you were! We went to Abingdon on Xmas day, with some friends and our youngest son, Christopher to a hotel - & yesterday we spent with him and his young son, Simon. the weekend was wonderful, but today is wet. Those of the family who have seen the photographs are delighted with them. Now we are going to have them framed for them. With love and thanks & affectionate good wishes for 1967 from Ronald and Edith Tolkien. £100-150
- 1465 J. R. R. Tolkien (1892-1973) a hand signed typed letter to his official photographer Pamela Chandler, dated 6th February 1967: Dear Mrs Chandler, Thank you for your kind and interesting letter, I am afraid that my letter will prove some disappointment to you. This has nothing to do with my opinion of your work which I much admire, but I have come to the conclusion that I cannot spare the time, nor indeed tolerate, any further photography of myself in my own home. In making the preliminary agreement to endure the process for the purpose of illustrating the forthcoming article in Weekend Telegraph I feel I have been misled. Opinions received from Messrs. Allen & Unwin led me to expect a totally different approach and a far more intelligent one. Mr and Mrs Plimmer a few days ago sent me a draft of their article. I think it is ill-written, though more pretentious, in fact actually little better than other recent interviews. Much of it I resent as an impertinent intrusion into my privacy. I have this morning phoned Messrs. Allen & Unwin and told them that I will have nothing more to do with it. For reasons which I do not understand, Miss Hill of Allen & Unwin asserts that they will not be prepared to use any of your admirable photographs not taken specifically for the purpose of this article. I am very sorry. But I have come to the point when I can stand no more of this nonsense. I hope this will not damage our friendship. May I assure you again that I feel no resentment towards yourself. Yours very sincerely J. R. R. Tolkien. £1,500-2,500

- 1466 Edith Tolkien (1889-1971) a hand written double sided letter by the wife of J. R. R. Tolkien to his official photographer Pamela Chandler, dated 8/1/67: My dear Pamela, many thanks for writing. Today we are celebrating "The Professor's" 75th Birthday, & he's had many cards, letters and telegrams! We are very sorry you've had to give up your cottage - after such a short time - most disappointing. Perhaps - on your travels, you may find another one; we hope so, & one suitable for the dogs. About illustrating the Plimmer article for the Weekend Telegraph. My husband says he's willing for you to do it - & we should enjoy seeing you - but it can't be till February, as we are going away shortly - till the end of the month. I'm still unable to walk - altho' having treatment twice a week for my knees, so shall be glad of a rest - & my husband needs a break quite often from Brain-work, etc. We both send love & wish you a very happy 1967. I hope you are well. Yours sincerely Edith W. - 1469 Edith Tolkien (1889-1971) a hand written letter by the wife of J. R. R. Tolkien to his official photographer Pamela Chandler, dated Oct. 25th / 67: My dear Pamela, I'm sorry you've had to wait so long for an answer - but my husband has been very ill, with a dreadful virus & he had a Temp. for three weeks. As soon as he could be moved, we came home - & he was still in bed for the first week, but he is much better, & went out yesterday - the first time in nearly five weeks. He is still weak, but he is much better, & went out yesterday. - the first time in five weeks. He is still weak - & easily tired - & the Doctor says the pains in his head will continue for some time -& it's affected his eyes. & don't know when we shall go home: - the Dr. wants him to get much stronger first. He's had wonderful attention and kindness from everybody. & was terribly tired - so am very grateful for the rest & comfort. We are so sorry you haven't a job yet. It must be annoying for you. How are the dogs? - it was too bad we missed you when you went to see Priscilla about the prints. We should much like six of the smallest ones - as several friends will like to have one & it would be nice for a Xmas gift. The family have been delighted with their's - & we had them frame in grey as you suggested. Christopher (the son you met) has just flown back from Canada: he saw the glorious Autumn colours before he left and says they are marvellous. We are now Great. Grandparents! Our grand daughter had a little girl in August. No wonder we feel old!! Love - & many good wishes from us both Edith W Tolkien £100-200

- 1470 Edith Tolkien (1889-1971) two hand written double sided letters, the first dated Nov 18th /67 - 'My Dear Pamela, Thank you very much for writing - we are so glad you are busy and have plenty of work now - As you see, we are at home - we had almost five weeks at Bournemouth - and with lots of kindness and care my husband is wonderfully much better tho' can't do much yet and is easily tired. My arthritis- unfortunately is a good deal worse - and I can scarcely walk at all. As for stairs, - it's good to hear Didon and his child are well and get long walks. We had dreadful gales and heavy rain at Bournemouth- but sunny last week and warm! Now very cold and frosty - but dry. Priscilla is staying at home this year - so we expect to spend Xmas with her. I'm so glad you are going to Somerset. I have a cousin living at Worle near Weston Super Mare. Very many thanks for getting the prints done for us. Our love and good wishes to you - Edith W Tolkien'. Together with a letter dated December 5th /67 - 'Dear Pamela, we are delighted with the photographs - Thankyou very much for sending them. They were beautifully packed - and we were intrigued as to whom the two-piece face was! My husband is much better but easily tired and can't do much work yet. I hope you will enjoy X-mas and have a prosperous New Year. Priscilla will be calling in, I expect, & I will give her your love. Again - very many thanks and our love to you. Edith W Tolkien.' - 1979 1987 BMW 635CSi Auto, 3.4 litre coupe, Reg. No. C535 MAL, finished in red with black leather interior, This fine example of BMW's 1980's flagship coupe has been owned by the vendor since 2011 (with the previous owner having the car from 1999), it comes with a history file including V5, some old MOT's and original service book, stamped by supplying dealer Paragon Motors of Hull, it contains 23 service stamps which help to corroborate the car's mileage of 66,000 as being genuine. The car also comes with MOT until 11th August 2022. The interior and exterior condition of the car are both in very good order, with nice rich paint, original leather, and excellent chrome work. The car is testament to the care its previous owners have taken of it, viewing is highly advised in order to truly appreciate this fine example. (Subject to 12% buyers premium inclusive of VAT) £14,000-16,000
- 1980 1976 Mini 850 Pickup, 848cc, Reg. No. MTW 599P, finished in white with a vinyl interior. This charming example has been owned and comprehensively restored by the current owner since 2015, it comes with a history file including V5 and a quantity of receipts detailing thousands of pounds of replacement parts. As you would expect the interior and exterior condition of the car are both very good, with excellent paint and chrome work. The car is both MOT and taxed exempt and is testament to the time and effort the current owner has spent restoring it. (Subject to 12% buyers premium inclusive of VAT) £14,000-16,000
- 1981 1948 Bentley MKVI Standard Steel Saloon Registration JLY191, Chassis B372CF, Six cylinder 4.25 litre engine, manual transmission. This elegant classic Bentley is finished in black and silver with pale blue grey leather upholstery. The current retired Doctor owner has owned it for eight years and kept the car in good mechanical order having had the gearbox overhauled, the back axle overhauled increasing its ratio to the R Type specification for better cruising speeds, a new exhaust system, new tyres and other general maintenance . Whilst the body work is presentable it will require some cosmetic work including a new rear bumper . The interior is in good order and has had the rear seat squab re-upholstered. It is supplied with a large history file including maintenance bills going back to the 1960s and photographic evidence of a full body and mechanical overhaul in the past , copies of original build cards, factory service manuals and spare parts list. It also has its original under dash small tool kit and large tools .A good useable example which is an ideal use and improve project which has had considerable expenditure lavished on it over the years. It has a current V5 document (Subject to 12% buyers premium inclusive of VAT). £12,000-14,000
- 1982 1954 Sunbeam - Talbot 90 Convertible, four cylinder 2267cc, column change, Reg. No. OYM 867. Chassis no. 3015647HCO This lovely, rare convertible is finished in light stone with red hide upholstery. Previously sold by us in 2015, the former owner had the car from 1963 until 2015, with the current owner enjoying and improving the car over the last 6 years. It has had various improvements including re-trimmed front seats and attention to the bodywork including new sills and bottom half re-spray in 2007. The general condition appears to be very sound, driving well and can be best described as good running restoration project. A rare opportunity to purchase a low mileage / low ownership unmolested example of this rare convertible The car is both MOT and taxed exempt (Subject to 12% buyers premium inclusive of VAT). £7,000-9,000
