| 825 Highly Interesting and evocative First / Second World War family resistance medals. The medals were awarded to two brothers Pierre and Michel Joassin with a third medal the Medal of WW2 Armed Resistance awarded to Pierre's son Michel Pierre Joassin. Both brothers were living at Herstal which was the home of the Belgium arms factory Fabrique Nationale, the town was over run by the Germans on the 7th August 1914, ten houses were destroyed and 27 civilians killed. The brothers volunteered their services to the British and are recorded as Belgium agents. Surviving the War Pierre continued to live in the town and in 1923 his son Michel-Pierre was born. Pierre's services against the Germans would once again be needed with the declaration of war once more against German, the arms factory would once more be a wanted price by the Nazis. Pierre is confirmed as working for the resistance with his son, however on the 23rd March 1943 Pierre was arrested and his son was arrested three days later and killed by the Germans. Imprisoned by the Nazis, Pierre was eventually deported to Dachau Concentration Camp arriving on the 16th February 1945 categorised as a Political Prisoner, his prison number confirmed as "141282". Surviving he was liberated and returned home to Rue Large Voie 83 Herstal to start the search for his son. The typed piece of paper is a reply to enquire trying to locate the circumstances of his son's death and his final resting place. Amongst the group can be found Pierre's original cloth uniform Dachau political prisoners badge and printed prison number. £2,500-3,500 826 First World War period mahogany and brass map plot, stamped Bleriot London to reverse. £120-150 827 Second World War Nazi cutlery comprising two knives, two spoons and a fork, each stamped with the Luftwaffe Eagle, together with a very large Swastika, cut from the centre of a flag. £60-100 828 Two boxes of Soviet cloth and metal badges together with some medals £40-60 829 Four boxes of military clothing and uniform to include hats, helmets and jacket and Police hats. £40-60 830 Four boxes of military clothing and uniform to include jackets, Police helmets, hats etc £40-60 831 Six boxes of military clothing and uniform to include jackets, hats etc £30-50 | 832 One box containing a very large quantity of staybrite military badges and buttons. £40-60 833 Collection twenty seven Second World War Wartime Economy issue cap badges, various regiments including R.E.M.E., Essex Regiment and Army Ordnance Corps (27 badges) £50-70 834 Collection of eight Victorian and later blue cloth helmet plates, to include East Lancashire 2nd Vol. Battn. and Suffolk regiment, mounted on card (8 badges) £100-150 835 Three cases of Elizabeth II Police helmet plates and other badges to include Warwickshire, Dorset and Lancashire (41 approximately badges) £50-70 836 Collection of British military brass belt buckles together with American and other belt buckles (1 box) £40-60 837 Four boards mounted with British military cap badges, mainly Scottish regiments, some reproductions noted (approximately 69 badges) £100-200 838 Five boards mounted with British military cap badges, Lancers, Hussars and Dragoons some reproductions noted (approximately 130 badges) £150-200 839 Five boards mounted with British military cap badges, including two of staybrite badges mainly various regiments, some reproductions noted (approximately 146 badges) £100-150 840 Four boards mounted with British military cap badges, various regiments including Connaught Rangers, Somerset Light Infantry and Artists Rifles some reproductions noted (approximately 108 badges) £100-200 841 Four boards mounted with British military cap badges, various regiments including Guards Machine Gun Corps, Royal Armoured Corps and Artists Rifles some reproductions noted (approximately 95 badges) £100-200 842 Four boards mounted with British military cap badges, various regiments including Suffolk Regiment, and Royal Warwickshire Regiment, some reproductions noted (approximately 103 badges) £100-200 843 Three glazed cases containing a collection of American, German and British military badges, some reproductions noted (3 cases) £60-100 844 Three glazed cases containing a collection of American and British military badges, some reproductions noted (3 cases) £60-100 |
