It has recently been re-commissioned by the well known Rolls-Royce specialist Harvey Wash Ltd with invoices totalling in excess of £7,500 . It has black coachwork which is mostly original , showing its age in places but has a wonderful lustrous shine . The Sedanca roof mechanism has been sealed shut but all the catches and fittings appear to be present and hopefully could be put back into working order. The interior seats are leather to the front with original fitted cloth covers and West of England cloth to the rear . To the rear it has an electric division, folding picnic tables and jump seats and the original central H.M.V radio.All the chrome work including the splendid Lucas P100R headlamps is in good order and overall the car has a wonderful presence and patina one only finds with original, un-restored cars. |
